THE BEST NEW STORES

< MARCH, SAN FRANCISCO

Once a source for European furniture, this Bay Area boutique has been redesigned and relaunched with an emphasis on tabletop accessories and cookware. Highlights include Aga ranges, custom-made butcher-block tables, and a signature line of jams, vinegars, and spices. 3075 Sacramento St., 415-931-7433; marchsf.com

V CASAMIDY, BRUSSELS

Husband-and-wife design team Jorge Almada and Anne-Marie Midy have opened their first street-level shop in Belgium's capital city. Chic furnishings are housed in a 1907 building with original moldings and marble fireplaces. 158 Franz Merjay, 011-32-2-345-2553; casamidy.com

< ERINN V. MAISON, LOS ANGELES

Designer Erinn Valencich's case goods and upholstered items are displayed in her first store alongside vintage finds, Cadrys rugs, Princes & Crows wallpaper, and lighting by Los Angeles firm Whyrhymer. Custom-made kitchen cabinetry and design services are also available. 319 S. Robertson Blvd., 310-247-0080; erinnvmaison.com

V NATHAN TURNER, LOS ANGELES

The popular decorator and TV star has moved to a larger shop in West Hollywood. The new space offers antiques and textiles from around the world, artwork, and tabletop items. Graphic Carolina George fabrics and Turner's own line of upholstered pieces for Elite Leather are also on display. 8546 Melrose Ave., 310-275-1209; nathanturner.com
