

Daun Curry

Interior Designer

New York interior designer Daun Curry is best known for her playful use of color, light and texture. Upon graduating from Parsons School of Design, Curry launched her career with several private Manhattan residences as well as the renovation of the Royalton Hotel. Her fondness for nostalgia and collecting vintage clothing, estate jewelry and art fueled inspiration for her custom furniture and home accessory line, Modern Declaration, which she launched in 2008. Featured in the likes of Vogue and Elle Decor and selected as a speaker at this weekend's AD Home Design Show, Curry is clearly a talent on the rise.
