

The Designers

Twenty-two top design firms from around the Bay Area were invited by showcase organizers to put their finishing touches on Villa Belvedere.

The work of two Marin firms, Cecilie Starin Interior Design and Sunrise Home, are spotlighted in two guest room suites that, like others in the house, have walk-in closets, full bathrooms and, of course, gorgeous views. "Bella Vista," Starin's guest room, represents the intersection of classical and modern with a color palette of warm and cool neutrals and lights and darks to evoke a sense of tranquility. She silver-leafed the ceiling, washed the walls in a weathered gray and trimmed them with a crackled-linen wall-border accent to give the impression of an old-world patina. For furnishings, she chose a sleek wrought iron

