

INSTANT ROOM

MARK D. SIKES

Light and dark, sheer linen checks and black lacquer—a Los Angeles designer balances the mood of his dining room for day or night.

Produced by
ORLI BEN-DOR

WALLPAPER

"I love chinoiserie anything. This is dramatic and sexy."

MIDNIGHT PAVILION, TO THE TRADE. graciestudio.com.

CURTAINS

"A loose weave that's casual—a chic contrast to the wallpaper."

MANCHESTER, A LINEN IN TREACLE, BY ROGERS & GOFFIGON, TO THE TRADE. 203-532-8068.

MIRROR

"A paneled mirror reflects light in an interesting way. And the subtle geometry of the panes plays off the check curtains."

10 PANEL GOLD FRAME MIRROR, 39" W × 72" H, $1,049, BY MIRROR IMAGE HOME. zincdoor.com.

ACCESSORIES

"Instead of hiding a collection inside a curio cabinet, I like to show pieces down the center of the table and sprinkled around the room. They have more impact."

HAPPINESS POTS, $239 FOR A SET OF THREE. wisteria.com.

CHANDELIER

"You expect a big crystal one, but this feels more modern."

NATALYA LARGE CHANDELIER, $8,400, BY JOHN ROSSELLI. circaighting.com.

TABLE

"The Regency-style table is pretty and functional. Casters make it easy to expand, so you can seat up to 20 guests."

CHRISTIENSEN DINING TABLE, $7,050, BY ALEXA HAMPTON. hickorychair.com.

CHAIR

"French chairs go anywhere. I love the look of the chalky white with the glossy table."

SOPHIE ARMCHAIR, $1,525. olystudio.com.