

ARCHITECTURAL DIGEST

THE INTERNATIONAL DESIGN AUTHORITY

FEBRUARY 2013

THE POWER OF DESIGN

SPECIAL FEATURE:
CUTTING-EDGE
ARCHITECTURE

SHOPPING

MOST WANTED

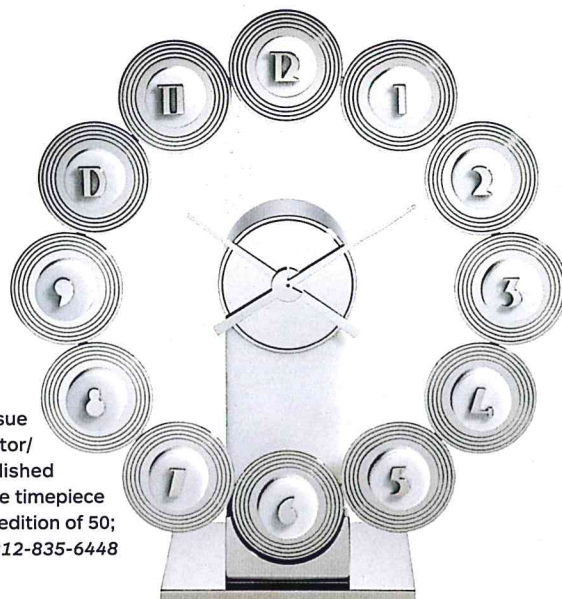

From simple pleasures to ultimate luxuries

TEXT BY STEPHANIE SCHOMER PRODUCED BY ANNE MONOKY

The striking silhouette of the Tipperary dining chair by Rose Tarlow Melrose House was inspired by Tarlow's European travels. Pictured in a silver-leaf finish, the 38" h. x 24" w. x 24" d. seat also comes in custom and mahogany finishes. Fabric is c.o.m.; to the trade. rosetarlow.com, 323-651-2202

This handsome clock by Puiforcat is a reissue of a 1932 Art Deco design by the French sculptor/silversmith Jean Puiforcat. Made of polished palladium-coated brass and white marble, the timepiece stands 12" tall and is available in a numbered edition of 50; it costs $46,400. puiforcat.com, 212-835-6448

The new Scalamandré by Lenox collection of table- and giftware includes china in the textile house's signature Zebras pattern (shown). Four additional designs are offered; prices range from $20 to $300 per item at Bloomingdale's. bloomingdales.com, 800-232-1854

With clean lines and sharp angles, the L4 lamp by Gracie makes a graphic yet elegant statement. Standing 27" tall, shade included, the lamp features a wood base finished in either antiqued silver- (shown) or gold-leaf tea paper; to the trade. graciestudio.com, 212-924-6816

Handprinted on natural fibers, the Indo-ikat wall coverings from Phillip Jeffries's Passport collection update this traditional motif with bold color combinations, including, at left, magenta and purple on natural linen, and white and lime on navy abaca. Nine additional colorways are available; to the trade. phillipjeffries.com, 973-575-5414

CLOCK: GUENTIN BERTOUX FOR PUIFORCAT; CHAIR: COURTESY OF ROSE TARLOW MELROSE HOUSE