WHAT TO SEE, WHAT TO DO, WHERE TO GO? WE ASK THOSE IN THE KNOW

What's the chicest home accessory you've ever seen?

"I recently found a great mid-20th-century mirrored bookcase at Gustavo Olivieri Antiques (352 Montauk Hwy., Wainscott, 631-537-2881, gustavoolivieri.com). It's old world, yet completely modern at the same time."

—Wendy Swarrs, president, Hunter Boat

"A garden-tool set and gloves from Hermès (63 Main St., East Hampton, 631-324-9777, hermes.com). Having a garden is a luxury to begin with, and the Hermès set is both practical and luxurious. Plus, I love getting expensive things dirty!"

—Richard Sinnott, accessories director, Michael Kors

"Framed family photographs. Brentano's frames (121 Crosby St., NYC, 212-226-3004, brentanos.com) add personality and charm to any home."

—David Oliver, owner, Paint & Paper Library

"Artist Naohiro Maki's one-of-a-kind white plates (at Sara Japanese Pottery, 950 Lexington Ave., NYC, 212-772-3341, sara.com) are richly textured, yet elegantly simple and unconventional."

—Jacqueline Caumans, fabric designer

"The bronze wishbone and teardrop pieces at Antony Todd (414 E. 10th St., NYC, 212-529-3252, antonytodd.com) are both whimsical and sophisticated. They're ideal accessories for a coffee or end table."

—Eve Robinson, decorator
