History Redefined

Maloos Anvarian, a designer for over 20 years, is sharing her vision and creations with the world. She has opened DWM Interiors, a 1,200-square-foot showroom in the Showplace San Francisco Design Center. Her innovative line of furnishings oozes personality and refinement. Her unique way of reviving antique forms through the use of modern materials is refreshing and unexpected. If you are looking for a piece or two with pizzazz, it's worth a trip to her showroom. DWM Interiors, Inc., 2 Henry Adams Street, #349, San Francisco. 415.864.3857. www.dwminteriors.com ➔

The Slope Chair, a modern twist on traditional wing back design

DWM Interiors is an inviting space filled with sunlight and is the perfect backdrop for this unique line of furnishings and accessories
