A pair of vintage golf occasional tables from Loloi Modern, also a result of modern glamour.

CARRIER AND COMPANY 108 LIVING ROOM WITH ROOM & BOARD

Decorators Jesse Carrier and Mara Miller—husband-and-wife partners in their New York firm—used furnishings from Room & Board to create an elegant living room that multitasks with ease and charm. A library table is tall enough for working or dining, the comfortable seating works for both cocktail hour and more intimate conversations, and nothing detracts from the spectacular view. On one wall, four Room & Board slim Etigine line up to add architectural interest (and storage) to the chic space. “No matter how much you fill them, they’re visually light,” Miller says.
