

CLEAN SLATE

Three local design firms curate mood boards for luxe master bathrooms.

BY ANDREA TIMPANO

PHOTOGRAPHS BY JOE ST. PIERRE

STYLING BY KAYLEI MCGAW/ANCHOR ARTISTS

BUBBLE BATH

Drawing inspiration from a painting by German artist Ruth Eckstein, the Platemark Design team imagined a champagne-ready space with marble tile and a plush seating area in calming blues and greens.

1 Perennials “Plushy” acrylic textile, Studio 534. 2 Byriver jade facial roller, stylist’s own. 3 Sycamore sample, Masterpiece Woodworks. 4 “Backgammon” viscose-linen textile, Fret. 5 Saladino Furniture “Diamante” polyester textile, Savel. 6 “Rivero” viscose-cotton textile, the Romo Group. 7 Vintage crystal champagne coupe, designer’s own. 8 “Maya” viscose-linen textile, Fret. 9 Baudelaire washcloth, Follain.

10 Saladino Furniture “Kashmir” linen-cotton textile, Savel. 11 Parco Palladiano II fragrance, Bottega Veneta. 12 Vintage Murano glass drawer pull, Period Furniture Hardware. 13 “Ming Green” marble tile, DiscoverTile. 14 “Blue Celeste” marble tile, DiscoverTile. 15 “White Thassos” marble tile, DiscoverTile. 16 Baudelaire sea-wool sponge, Follain. 17 Farmaesthetics “Dream Bath Elixir” bath soak, Follain. 18 Olas bamboo toothbrush, Credo. 19 Yves Delorme cotton-moss wash towel, Linens on the Hill. 20 Live in Mosaics shell dish with stained glass, Blackstone’s of Beacon Hill.